Panama Canal.

Panama Canal.

Panama Canal.

We all hall as the harbinger of the new era in the commerce of the world the inception of the great work of building the canal that is to join the two great oceans, but we deprecate the netion of the present Administration, which inflicted a wound upon our national honor by its disregard of the rights of a weaker nation in order to gain a doubtful credit for energy in forwarding that great enterprise. The tertitory of a neighboring republic, with which we are at peace, is actized by a band of revolutionists, protected by the guns of the United States navy, and crected into a state overnight, which the President promptily recognized as an independent nation—a gross offernse against a friendly republic which it was helpless to resent.

Imperialism.

Imperialism.

Imperialism.

These and many other unwarranted things that belong more to an employ than a republic have occurred under the Administration and brought deep concern and alarm to thoughtful and patriotte minds. They must be regarded as the first fruits of imperialism, and show how fast we are drifting toward absolutism and centralized power. The effect of the imperialistic policy of the Republican party on our foreign affairs is in opposition to the teachings of the founders of the Republic and so impressed was Washington with the importance of keeping aloof from the affairs of other nations that, in his farewell address, he warned his countrymen especially against foreign entangling alliances. Imperialism is hurtful and abhorrent in a free government and subversive of free institutions. The policy of imperialism—if it can be said to have a policy—is always dangerous to liberty. Its powers are first exercised in far-off territory and on conquired and distant possessions, it becomes, sooner or later, the rule of the home sovernment. Liberty and free government have always here secured at the cost of great sacrifices, but history teaches its that both can be easily lost without the knowledge of the people.

Tarriff Question.

without the knowledge of the people.

Tarriff Question.

Our Federal constitution has appropriated to the exclusive use of the general Government the power of indirect taxation, covered by the popular designation of 'tarriff dutien.' In excluding the States from this demain of taxation there is an implied and wise partition of the taxating power between the States and the federal Government. Except in the exigences of war the taxing power has been exercised by Congress largely in the direction of the imposition of duties upon imports. No one expects to change this arrangement which has proven so controlled to the interests of the States where resort to other sources of revenus is left unitrammoled. Indirect taxation, however convenient, needs, by reason of indirectness to be writefully guarded, lest abuses should attach themselves unknown by the people. That many of the existing tariff rates are excessive and enable powerful combinations to extort unjust and opporesolve tribute from the people cannot be controverted. The tariff is andoubtedly too high on such articles as enables the manufacturer to sell his products abroad cheaper than at home. Steal rails are a good example in this respect. It is admitted that they are being made for $12 a ton. This unjust discrimination against our people is made possible only by a tariff that on this article is entirely too high.

The average selling price of a hundred articles taken principally from the iron and steel list is found to be about 20 per cent higher in this country than abroad. Relief from those conditions will only come through the success of the Democratic party, which stands for a wise, conservative and gradual change in the Inriff laws, which will equalize the burdens of laxation and make honest competition possible. But is making such changes its purpose will be to legislate with a due regard for the labor and capital involved in industrial enterprises.

Local Self Government.

Local Self Government.

Local self-government their came to us not as the gift of the National Government, but as the legitimate autrome of the reserve powers of the States and of the people is the very corner-stone of our political structure and the best assurance of their regulated by law. It can only be maintained by strict observance of the limitations of the Federal constitution. The Democratic party has always resisted, and will continue to resist the encroachment by its enemies upon the fundamental right of the people of the real States. All power comes from the people and should be surfendered only in the interests of the people, and whenever this power is used for selfish interests it is not only an abuse, but usurpation.

Matter of Arbitration.

Matter of Arbitration.

Matter of Arbitration.

The declaration in the St. Louis platform in favor of arbitration is one that appeals to any sense of mirness. Nations and States have employed to advantage this method of settling disputed questions States have invoked its ald with good results and individuals frequently have resort to it in adjusting questions of difference. The Hague tribunal, repletenting the sentiment of conciliation, is the highest practical expression of intelligent thought on this subject. The principles of arbitration are the same whether governing is the great court of Nations or applied in the affairs of industrial life. Its permanent establishment as a part of the industrial system of the country upon a basis of mutual consent of all parties to a controversy would insure more friendly relations between employer and employed, for the interest of the workingman and the employer is identical. It affords a rafe and equitable method of determinating differences that may arise, and has been called "a reasonable and natural mode" of settling such disputes. The spirit of arbitration is kindred to the love of law and order. It is the arbitret of peace instead of warand makes for happiness instead of sortion.

Race Issue.

Race Issue.

Race Issue.

All lovers of their country must deprecate the rehabilitation by the Republican party of a disappearing race issue at the time when every effort should be made to promote rather than retard the progress which was being made in the States where slavery and existed toward indiller relations between the two mees. The revival of this issue, with all its attendant evils, must of necessity retard the development of the Southern States, whose people are struggling manfully with conditions left by the war, and seriously interferes with the industrial progress of both races.

LEADERS FEAR OVERCONFIDENCE

Prospects of Victory Thus Endangered.

Taggart Makes a Dangerous Move Against Indianapolis Congressman.

Democrats to Make Desperate Effort to Carry New York, Indiana, West Virginia and Others.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 .- "Overconfidence," on the part of Republicans, is telyou and his associates in the National campaign. The drift in public sentiment has been and continues to be so unmistakably in the direction of President Roosevelt and Republican principles, that Republicans in many places, it is said, are indifferent to campaign work.

All the party's workers will be urged not to relax their efforts to make the vote large and solid, as it is believed only inattention to duty, widely extended, could injure or destroy Republican prospects of victory at the polin. This phase of the situation was discussed fully, showing that it is causing worry to the big chiefs, but as the Republicans in Vermont and Maine woke up and got to work, after the Democrate boasted of making the best campaign in many years there, so it is believed that when the big Democratic speakers like Bryan, Hill, Gorman, Senator Daniel and others begin to tour the doubtful States the Republicans too palgn work. the doubtful States the Republicans too willy, practical politician, such a one as Senator Hanna was wont to say would "take a chance." They have information that Taggart is not going to idle much time away at French Lick Springs, but that he has a trick or two he intends to employ in the West.

One of these, for instance, has already come to light. In the Congress district in Indiana represented by Jesse Overstreet, Republican, there are between 5000 and 5000 negro-voters. Taggart arranged for the nomination of a negro as an "Independent" candidate for Constant as an "Independent" candidate for Con-gress, thus causing a thres-cornered fight in which Overstreet is likely to b nght in which Overstreet is likely to be defeated. Overstreet's friends in Indiana are greatly wrought up over this, but siy Tom Taggart merely gives that good-natured laugh and says. "We had to do it. We are not through yet, Storm Center of Democracy.

New York, Indiana and West Vir-ginia, the Democratic leaders have figcombination they must gain to win.
Personal reasons also enter into the equation, to make each of these States
a storm center for the next five weeks.
Judge Parker and his Wall street directorate are especially anxious to carry their own State, New York. The young men's candidate, H. Garsaway Davis, was nominated for Vice-President with was nominated for Vice-Freshent with the agreement that he would finance and direct to a winning result the cam-paign in his State, West Virginia. Torn Taggart never would have been elected chairman of the National committee exchairman of the National committee excent for his alleged expert knowledge of Indiana politics. With the solid South and the border States, which, by the way, are not all safe to the Democrats, they say they could elect Judge Parker President, and probably also elect a Democratic House of Representatives, if each of the three interests mentioned should prove so fortunate as to make good.

was refused by the Republicans at the mandate, it is believed of the administration. Congress sadjourned earlier than at any long session for many years for the purpose, it is believed, or preventing further agitation of the question and in an effort to curtail expenses.

Civil Service.

Civil Service.

Offices are created filled in pursuance of law to carry on the government, and not to further party ambition and the self-purpose of any citizen. Many of the hundred thousand Ecdeval office-holders, servants of all the people, while under salary, are now viscousts, some covarity and some openly, working and contributing in the present campaign to secure the success of the Republican party in defant violation of the civil service laws, rules and regulations. Several members of the Cabinet and other officials of the Government forsaking their duties and departments at Woshington, are spending their time in making spesches and using all the influence and power of their official positions to elect their chief.

Judge Parker.

Judge Parker.

The late Democratic convention and its candidate for President have given signal exhibitions of a mutual respect and confidence almost unprecedented in our political history, and our party has received new insuiration and hope in its arpeal to the people, who always appreciate and admire courage, character and discretion in their leaders. Our candidate has these cualities and can be depended upon as all times to observe that self-centred in speech and action which is so necessary to safe reasoning and sound judgment.

With unabated trust in the efficiency of the cardinal principles of our great party, whon applied to the practical administration of government to realize the blessings of peace and propriety for all, and believing that the people will carrect the present abuses of administration by a change of party in power. I awalt with confidence the result of their judgment at the polis. Very truly yours.
